

Delta Seminars / On Demand

Delivered by leading industry experts, our on-demand content provides you with the flexibility to learn and develop your skills where and when suits you best. Our Seminars focus on best practice and techniques for successful structural waterproofing and appropriate application of products.

Our Seminars are not intended for use as a substitute for employing a CSSW or equally qualified waterproofing professional for your project.

There will be no handouts given in relation to our Seminars, however our Technical Department will be happy to discuss any aspect with you.

For all technical queries, please contact our Technical Department on 01992 523 523 or email info@deltamembranes.com

To view Delta's Presentations, you will need:
